

The Countryside Code

Your guide to enjoying parks and waterways, coast and countryside

Respect everyone

- be considerate to those living in, working in and enjoying the countryside
- leave gates and property as you find them
- do not block access to gateways or driveways when parking
- be nice, say hello, share the space
- follow local signs and keep to marked paths unless wider access is available

Protect the environment

- take your litter home - leave no trace of your visit
- take care with BBQs and do not light fires
- always keep dogs under control and in sight
- dog poo - bag it and bin it - any public waste bin will do
- care for nature - do not cause damage or disturbance

Enjoy the outdoors

- check your route and local conditions
- plan your adventure - know what to expect and what you can do
- enjoy your visit, have fun, make a memory

The Countryside Code

Follow advice and local signs

In some cases, additional higher rights of access or permissive access could exist.

Footpath

Bridleway

Restricted Byway

Byway open to all traffic

Permissive Path

Follow advice on local signs as landowners voluntarily provide access to these paths and those who can use them. Some open access areas are also made available in the same way.

National Trail

National Trails are created for walking, with horse-riding and cycling possible on some trails or trail sections.
