Introduction

Long Melford Parish Council's Standing Orders are based upon the National Association of Local Council (NALC) Model Standing Orders 2018 for England, as amended. NALC's has stated that, in its view, its model standing orders will generally be suitable for most councils.

How to use the Standing Orders

Standing Orders are the written rules of a local council and are also essential to regulate the proceedings of a council meeting. A council may also use Standing Orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. The Standing Orders of a council are not the same as its policies, but may refer to them.

Local councils operate within a wide statutory framework. These Standing Orders incorporate and reference many statutory requirements to which councils are subject. It is not possible for the Standing Orders to contain or reference all of the statutory or legal requirements which apply to local councils, however. For example, it is not practical for Standing Orders to document all obligations under data protection legislation. The statutory requirements to which a council is subject still apply whether or not they are incorporated in its Standing Orders.

The Standing Orders do not include detailed financial regulations. Financial regulations are standing orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of a local council. The financial regulations, as opposed to the Standing Orders, include most of the requirements relevant to the council's Responsible Financial Officer.

Drafting notes

Standing Orders that are in bold type contain legal and statutory requirements. Standing Orders in standard type are designed to help the Council operate effectively. While binding upon the Council, they do not contain statutory requirements so have been adopted to suit the Council's needs.

Definitions

The following terms shall apply to these Standing Orders.

- "Council" refers to the Full Parish Council as constituted under the Local Government Act 1894 and functioning as determined by a quorate majority of its councillors.
- "Councillor" refers to a person serving as a member of the Council by being elected to it by the electors of the parish, or by being co-opted to it by the Council.
- "Committee" refers to a sub-set of the Council which reports directly to the Council, created to exercise some of the Council's public functions on its behalf.
- "Working Group" refers to a sub-set of the Council which reports either to the Council or a Committee, created to support its parent body to make well-informed decisions by gathering information and helping to expand the scope of the knowledge and expertise available to it. A Working Group acts in an advisory capacity only and cannot exercise any Council or Committee public functions.
